

STAC and ODFW Meeting

Marine Reserves Monitoring

Monday April 25, 2011

348 Strand Agriculture Hall (COAS Conference Room)

OSU Corvallis

Purpose:

- 1) Pilot site monitoring:
 - Provide STAC with an update on the human dimensions and ecological monitoring for the two pilot marine reserve sites.
 - Brief STAC on timeline and plans for monitoring reports.
 - Get feedback from STAC on planned products for monitoring reports and tapping experts for advice/assistance on analyses and reporting.
- 2) Discuss how ODFW can best utilize STAC in the marine reserves process going forward.

Timeline for ODFW Monitoring Reports and Workshops:

- April 2011: STAC and ODFW meeting
- June 2011: Progress reports (pilot sites)
- August 2011: Monitoring review workshop* (pilot and new sites)
- Early spring 2012: Baseline/T₀ monitoring reports (pilot sites)
- Every other spring: Biennial monitoring reports (pilot and new sites)

* Purpose: To review the ODFW ecological monitoring program and prepare for incorporating the new marine reserve sites. ODFW will be inviting experts from Oregon, Washington, and California.
